Dear Master Julian Pavone,

We are pleased to confirm that you have set the new Guinness World Records title for 'Youngest drummer' and a certificate to commemorate this is included.

Details of your achievement have been entered into our records as follows:

'The youngest professional drummer is Julian Pavone (USA) (b. 14 May 2004) as of 21 March 2010, he was 5 years 10 months 3 days old.'

Although the certificate does not automatically guarantee an entry in our world-famous annual book, we do consider all new records for inclusion in all future Guinness World Records publications and products.

As an official record holder you can request further certificates and find out all about using our logo and trademark to let everyone know about your achievement or for any other commercial purpose. To find out more, please go to www.guinnessworldrecords.com, log in and select claim: 353791.

Welcome to the very select club of Guinness World Records holders.

Yours sincerely,

Morgan Wiber
